OUR CURIOSITY.

Putnam's Hermit Wonder Unearth ed-An Enterprising Reporter Discovers him for a Sensational-Who He is and How he Lives.

Our broad gauge railway has now crossed the St. Johns and its shricks are heralding the glory of its conquest in the fragrant groves and fields far south of us. It is carrying progress and wealth in its train to the joy of all, but a few The schooner Emma S. Good Books.

In every household, warnings have been uttered against the yellow covered trash which is miscalled the "literature still read because it is cheap-easily found and furnishes food for a moment's empty entertainment.

Now, however, all the arguments herestuff, a New York publisher now furnto trash, and in type clear and distinct; as befit the garments of wisdom and practical worth. Here may be found Poe's Prose Tales more absorbing than any number of the Nickel Library, yet mules, car load of fine milch cows and a of permanent value—the breathing creation of a genius ever alive and at work; live stock business for all it is worth this of Bacon; the tender prose words of Irving, the wonders of Gulliver and Munchausen, the mountain heights from which Carlisle throws his volcanic contributions-tne songs of all ages and the scientific logic of Huxley and Tyndall and Darwin and Rawlinson and Draper. Age may now buy cheap books and learn; vouth can get valuable books which will entertain as well as instruct and the slender purse can go to Cochrane's and not feel that the literary feast there spread has made of him a Tantalus.

There is a club in town from which much in the way of correction is expected, but if it ever does as much as Fred Cochrane did when he offered us Alden's publication of standard authors, then it will do more than show us bud ding John Sullivan proud of boxing gloves and muscle.

We receive letters from every section of the country thanking us for placing this preparation in the reach of suffering woman. One lady from North Carolina writes that she would like to be the start of the suffering woman. that she would like to thank the proprietors on her knees for bringing it to her notice, as in a previous confine-ment she had two doctors, and they were compelled to use chloroform, instruments etc., and she suffered almost death; but this time she used "MOTHERS" FRIEND, "and her lobor was like more MOTHERS FRIEND, and her lobor was like magic. Now, why should a woman suffer when she can avoid it? We can prove all we claim by living witnesses, and anyone interested can call, or have their husbands do so, at our office, and see the original letters, which we cannot publish.

This remedy is one about which we cannot publish certificates, but it is a most wonderful liniment to be used after the first two or liniment to be used as three months.
